A million love songs

Crowded places,
shrouded faces,
lift the veil,
let God shine.

Ships a-passing,
vessels laden,
cares and worries
weighing down.

Stop and chatter,
share with others,
lift the veil,
let God shine.

A million faces,
each a love song,
postcards from heaven,
words divine.

Get together,
share the moment,
lift the veil,
let God shine.

Creator God,
all love bestowing,
lift our hearts,
to hear your song.

Heather Whyte ‘10